Some one came knock-ing at my wee small door. Some one came 10 knock - ing, I'm sure, sure, sure. I lis - ten'd, I o - pen'd, I looked to left and right. But

17 naught there was a stir-ring in the still, dark, night. On - ly the bus - y

27 bee - tle, Tap - tap-ping in the wall. On - ly — from the

35 for - rest the — screech - owl's call. On - ly the crick - et whist - ling

44 while the dew — drops — fall. —

55 14 So I know not who came knock - ing, — at all, at all, at all.
